Dear NOMC Patients, Community Supporters, and Volunteers:

We are sorry to report, that New Orleans' musicians are facing depleted health resources in Louisiana due to Governor Jindal's sudden, drastic state budget cuts. While we want to assure you, the sky is not falling at the NOMC, we do need your help to weather the downpour.

In order to continue to provide NOMC's network of medical services to our clients, we must find new sources of income and, with regret, cut back certain social and preventative services to deploy ALL our resources to support medical and mental care.

As of August 1, 2012, we are asking our patients to each contribute $10 per visit as co-pay and we are diverting money (we hope temporarily) from other NOMAF programs to support the musicians' clinic. The NOMAF staff is working around the clock to secure new sources of funding so we can continue to provide the medical, social and advocacy services our clients need to keep New Orleans' Music ALIVE.
